1. In view of recent developments, namely, the request by the Joint Chiefs of Staff that the Central Intelligence Group accept the transfer of the Joint Army-Navy Intelligence Studies program and the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board personnel and facilities, and the Director of Central Intelligence's approval thereof, it is considered that the ad hoc committee meeting mentioned in reference a to consider the format and outline of the National Intelligence Surveys should be held at an early date.

2. It is realized that all agencies may not have completed their entire list of requirements as requested in reference a. However, the matter is considered to be of sufficient urgency that further delay is not warranted.

It is therefore requested that each agency appoint a representative to attend a meeting to be sponsored by the Central Intelligence Group on Thursday, 25 September 1947, at 1100 in room 7117, North Interior Building, prepared to decide upon an appropriate format and outline for the National Intelligence Surveys which will best serve the purposes of the armed services and other agencies of the government.
